

DANIEL ROBERTSON,

(Late Gardener to Sir JOHN WODEHOUSE)

MOST respectfully begs Leave to acquaint the Nobility and Gentry, that he has opened a FLOWER and SEED SHOP, at No. 282, OXFORD-STREET; where they may be supplied with every Species of Hot and Green-House Plants, Shrubs, Garden-Seeds, Flower-Roots, &c. upon the most reasonable Terms.

He begs Leave also to acquaint the Public, that he has in his Possession a curious Balsam Seed, which far surpasses any Thing of the Kind ever seen in this Kingdom. Is now sold by him in Papers of Five Shillings each, and distinguished by the Name of the ROYAL BALSAM.
